VULNERABLE CUSTOMERS

Credo's products are designed for numerous customers including vulnerable customers.

A vulnerable customer is a customer who is particularly susceptible to detriment due to personal circumstances. Key drivers of vulnerability include:

- Capability
- Resilience Low ability to withstand and manage financial or emotional shocks.
- Life Events examples include bereavement or relationship breakdowns.
- Health Conditions or illnesses that affect the individual's ability to complete day to day tasks both physically or mentally.

Examples of vulnerable customers include:

- A customer grieving
- Struggling business or a business going into administration
- A customer that is unfamiliar with digital technology

Where you believe the customer maybe vulnerable, please inform us during the proposal/ introduction stage as the customer may require additional support to ensure they understand the information being provided, implications of the agreement and avoid risk of harm occurring.

Credo look to ensure that we achieve good outcomes for vulnerable customers. We do this through the following:

- Vulnerable customer training for all employees
- Suitable communication throughout the customer journey
- Internal policies to support both the employee and the customer.
- Monitoring to ensure that we are meeting the customers' expectations and we are assessing vulnerability.

OUR VALUE ASSESSMENT

In line with the new FCA requirements we have completed a value assessment on our regulated fixed term lease product.

When undertaking the assessment, we considered a number of outcomes including the benefits, price, cost and limitations.

Our assessment conducted by our Product and Value Approval Committee concluded that our regulated fixed term lease product has delivered and continues to deliver fair value to the target market.
